For your applications to be considered you must submit your financial information for the previous year.

Festive Fun at Jubilee Hall

7th December 2024

Make a note in your diaries to come along to free fun winter event at Jubilee Hall.

There will be fairground rides, a giant snow globe to play and take pictures, carol singing and refreshments available for all.

We are also hoping to revive the Christmas tree competition that has been a tradition in Anstey. If you are a member of a community group and would like take part, by decorating a tree and displaying it at Jubilee Hall. Please do get in touch with the Parish office for further details.

Unsung Hero Award

The Parish Council and Mini Movers are asking for nominations for their Unsung Hero Award. The winner will be recognised for their voluntary work with a prize of £100.00

To be eligible for nomination the nominee doesn't have to live in Anstey themselves but the project that they are involved with must be within the village - even if it is available to people from other areas. There is no age restriction on nominees as we are aware that volunteering and supporting people can be done by all ages.

Please email play@minimoversanstey.co.uk with any nominations or contact the Parish Office for further information.

Parish Council Meetings will be held on the first Tuesday of the month at the Jubilee Hall, Staddon Road, Anstey, starting at 7.30pm.

Details of meeting are shown on the website, all members of the public are welcome to these meetings.
